Introduction

Monmouthshire Housing Association (MHA) wants all contract holders and their residents, to live in an environment where they feel safe in their homes and communities.

We are committed to taking clear steps to deal with Anti Social Behaviour (ASB), nuisance and harassment so that MHA can provide a high quality service and work alongside all our contract holders, any other stakeholders, and partner agencies such as the police to make our communities a safe place.

Please contact the Corporate Services Team on 01495 761104, if you require this document in PDF, large-print, Welsh or any other language, braille or audio format.

What is Anti-Social Behaviour (ASB)?

Monmouthshire Housing Association (MHA) defines Anti-social behaviour (ASB) as:

“ASB is any type of Conduct that has caused, or is likely to cause, harassment, alarm or distress to any person”.

This behaviour may or may not constitute criminal activity.

Contract holders Responsibilities?

Contract Holders and/or their occupants, must not engage or threaten to engage in conduct capable of causing nuisance or annoyance.

A set of conditions are detailed in the legal Occupation Contract between MHA and the contract holder/tenant. MHA can enforce this contract and court action can be taken only if proportionate; dependent on the nature of the ASB and evidence.

What are MHA's Responsibilities?

ASB will be categorised and dealt with in the response time stated in this leaflet, via telephone, letter, email or visit from a member of the Neighbourhood/Community Safety team.

During the stages of your complaint we will take your complaint seriously, make every reasonable attempt to resolve the problem in a firm but sensitive manner, remain impartial and approach the situation with the view that all parties are innocent until the facts about any complaint have been established and we will deal with complaints in the strictest confidence.

What to do if you have a complaint

The earlier a dispute is resolved, the better for everyone.

Sometimes neighbours are unaware of how their actions affect others around them.

Approaching your neighbour in a polite and friendly manner explaining how their actions affect you can resolve many disputes without need for further action.

This may not be appropriate if your complaint is regarding harassment, intimidation, violence, or any other situation where you may feel vulnerable.

In these situations, you should contact the police straight away, but always inform MHA as well.

- On investigation, there is no justification for further action.
